

How are We Sharing our Gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure?

Stewardship in my Life

Christian Stewardship teaches us that everything we have is a gift from God. In gratitude and thankfulness for God's generosity, we try to use part of these gifts—our time, talent and our treasure for being good stewards for God's Kingdom.

If we believe that God gives us all that we have, then we will be thankful and full of joy!

Stewardship in my Community

I will share my time, talent and treasure in my community by:

- ___praying for our leaders including our Pope and our President
- ___recycling whenever possible
- ___giving some of my clothes, toys, books or money to someone who has less than me
- ___inviting someone who is lonely or left out to join me
- ___assisting with coaching a sport
- ___visiting or helping a neighbor

Stewardship is what we do after we say "I Believe."

Stewardship in my family

I will share my time, talent and treasure in my family by:

- ___ obeying my mother and father
- ___praying each day for my family and thanking God for all He has given me
- ___helping around the house without being asked
- ___sharing my toys and books when I play with others
- ___getting ready for bed without complaining
- ___babysitting for younger siblings
- ___doing my homework without being asked

Stewardship in my Church

I will share my time, talent and treasure in my Church Community by:

- ___praying for (parish name), our parishioners, our Priests, Deacon and all those who work here.
- ___attending Mass with my family
- ___participating in Mass through prayer and song
- ___joining the children's choir or youth choir
- ___giving a part of my allowance at Church each week
- ___becoming an altar server (5th grade & up)

Keep this part to remind you of your commitment and mark your promises in the section on the right. Tear or cut that part off and put in the basket on the altar when everyone is called forward at Mass or return it to the parish office.

My Stewardship Commitment

I have prayed about this, discussed it with my parent(s) and want to do this for Jesus.
